NO. 4 SEED DIMITROV ADVANCES

World No. 28 is the top seed remaining in the draw

After dropping the first set to Bosnian Damir Dzumhur, Grigor Dimitrov rallied to advance to the quarterfinals. As the No. 4 seed, he is the highest seed remaining in the draw. The world No. 28 faces No. 8 seed Adrian Mannarino in the quarterfinals. Mannarino, ranked No.

49 in the world, dispatched qualifier Tatsuma Ito in three sets Wednesday. For more, click here.

BECKER AND RAM TO MEET IN QFS

Both have made improbable runs through the tournament

Benjamin Becker found himself down 5-7, 0-4 to world No. 31 Steve Johnson before forcing a second set tiebreak and rallying for a three-set win. He'll face another American, Rajeev Ram, who double-faulted four times in one game for the first time in his career and left the door open for Ilya Marchenko to force a third set. Ram went onto win 6-2, 5-7, 6-4. He upset No. 2 seed Bernard Tomic in the first round. For more, click here.

BRYAN BROTHERS ADVANCE

Top-seeded doubles pair cruise through 1st round

The Bryan Brothers, the top seed in the doubles draw, won their opening round match over Aussies John-Patrick Smith and John Millman 6-3, 6-4. They will advance to the semifinals via walkover after Mikael Kukushkin withdrew with an injury, causing a quarterfinal walkover for the Bryans. The Bryans are back-to-back champions and are looking for their fifth career title at Delray Beach. Wednesday night they got their ninth straight win in the tournament. For the complete doubles draw, click here.

WEDNESDAY LADIES DAY LUNCHEON

Player appearances and fashion show highlight event

One of the most popular events at the Delray Beach Open has always been the Ladies Day Luncheon, and this year was no different, although a first-time fashion show was a unique twist to the long-time event. Attendees were joined in the hospitality tent by ATP World Tour pros Sam Groth and Tim Smyczek. The ladies enjoyed food, wine, and the fashion show, which was hosted by Angela Moore. Special guests included the VolleyGirls, Miss Delray Beach 2015 and Miss Boca Raton 2015.

WPBF-TV GOES LIVE FROM TENNIS

CENTER

Weather reporter takes a swing at a serve

Local ABC affiliate WPBF included two live hits in Wednesday morning's news from the Delray Beach Stadium & Tennis Center with meteorologist Sandra Shaw. She spoke with Tournament Chairman Ivan Baron about the Delray Beach Open while keeping an eye on a doubles practice session on Stadium Court behind her. After the weather hits, Shaw caught up with American Austin Krajicek at his practice court and took a pair of unsuccessful swings at his 120-mph serve before getting a racquet on a third.
